

Final ZOOM presentations: Internship with the Urban Clinic course Tuesday | July 14th, 2020 | 4pm-6pm

► What happens when MA students in urban planning get to work on the project of their dreams, and/or in apprenticeship with professionals? ► What is the value of the projects, practically and academically? ► What are the next steps?

Come think with us!

Course staff: Yaara Rosner, Tamir Mansour Carmel, Enaya Bana, Emily Silverman

Dana Keidar

Green learning spaces on school roofs in Jerusalem.

Avishai Abuhab

Assessing walkability in a hilly city

Bar Rapaport

Circular economy infrastructure for small and medium enterprises in Ramot.

Jamal Abu Hanna

The potential of public spaces in Ixal

Avigail Hashkes

Future light rail stations in Jerusalem: how can the guidelines improve quality?

Thara'a Kires

Teaching Placemaking for Jewish and Arab students on Mount Scopus?

Hadas Tzin

Health impacts of urban planning: a new assessment approach

Yasmin Abu Arafah

Historic preservation in the A-Tor neighborhood of East Jerusalem

Gali Sheskin

Taking the Community Center outdoors in a mixed Jewish Arab neighborhood of Jaffa

Simultaneous discussions with groups of 2-3 students.
Background information on each project will be sent on registration